Our Commitment to You ...

- To provide reliable support
- To help you to identify your life goals
- To offer appropriate resources to move you toward your goals
- To honour your career/self-employment choices to the best of our ability

What Drives the SIL Staff?

The Support for Independent Living Project (SIL) inspired by the core principles of the Independent Living Philosophy and committed to the implementation of the Participation Model.

Supports for Independent Living

Services & Activities

- Intake Session - getting to know you
- Mapping Session - identify your path and resources available to you
- Computers available for online career research
- Career Cruising - online career guidance and planning system
- WORCC, Resume Building, Job Maintenance
- Access to a wide range of activities from the Richmond Centre for Disability

Who is eligible for support?

Anyone with a disability is interested in transition and life planning and who:

- Would like to seek out information, or explore educational, career, volunteer or community involvement opportunities (i.e.: recreation)
- Already has a career or other community participation goal in mind
- Would like to sharpen their volunteer and job seeking skills
- Would like help to create or update their resume and cover letter
- Is from across the Lower Mainland or Fraser Valley

“Promoting a new perspective on disability”
RCD is here to support you

About RCD
The RCD is committed to enabling all people with disabilities in making informed choices, creating opportunities, meeting their goals and reaching their full potential. We offer an empowering, friendly environment where we work to provide quality services that lead to inclusion for people with disabilities.

Our Mission
To empower people with disabilities to participate in the community to the level of their desires and abilities by providing information, resources, support and by increasing community awareness and accessibility.

Find Your Path
(Career / Community participation planning)

Connect to the resources to help you along your way

Develop your participation and workplace skills

Gain knowledge and get support in life transitions

"Supports for Independent Living"
For more info please call
Louise Gaudry at 604-232-2404 or email:
louise@rcdrichmond.org

Richmond Centre for Disability
100-5671 No. 3 Road
Richmond, BC V6X 2C7
www.rcdrichmond.org
rcd@rcdrichmond.org

Richmond Centre for Disability

SIL
Supports for Independent Living

Richmond Centre for Disability
100-5671 No. 3 Road
Richmond, BC V6X 2C7
www.rcdrichmond.org
rcd@rcdrichmond.org

Supports for Independent Living (SIL)" is all about putting you, in the driver's seat of your search. You, the driver, will choose your final destination and the path that you need to get there. You draw the map to your own success!